

AmeriTops offers solid surface, engineered stone and natural stone products from all of the major manufactures. Our commitment to quality means that your countertops, vanities and wall structures will provide you with years of trouble free service. Construction using the best quality products available insures that you will not be disappointed in the reliability and performance of your purchase. From your initial purchase decision to the final installation AmeriTops employees strives to deliver professionalism and quality in all aspects of your experience. At AmeriTops every job is as important as the next.

A wide variety of acrylic and polyester materials in unique colors.

The discerning choice for quality materials and prices.

The industry's original solid surface manufacturer. What more is there to say?

Quartz from the innovator of solid surface countertops.

An industry standard for generations.

The logo says it all!

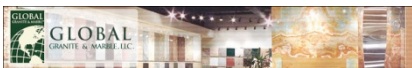

The 15 year warranty is setting the example for the industry.

Lives up to the reputation of the best Italian stones.

A totally unique product with environmental benefits.

Global Granite and Marble is the largest provider of natural stone products in the region.

Quality quartz products with Microban built in.

Create a focal point for your home.

The look of quartz with the durability of solid surface.

A versatile surfacing material that has multiple uses and are a popular countertop material construction and remodeling.